aspo

A Newsletter of the American Society of Planning Officials

Planning

VOLUME 37, 1971 ANNUAL INDEX

ISSUE PAGE NUMBERS

January, 1-12
February-March, 13-44
April, 45-60
May, 61-76
June, 77-92
July, 93-112
August, 113-132
September, 133-148
October, 149-160
November, 161-172
December, 173-188

AESTHETICS

Billboard enforcement, 140

ASPO

Awards and Honors: ASPO Medal to Norton, 65-66; Book exhibit gift to Institute of Planning, University of Philippines, 66; 1971 Journalism Award to Miami Herald, 66; 1972 Journalism competition, 174
Board of Directors elected, 64-65; Frederick T. Aschman, death of, (editorial), 173-174
By-laws, adopted March 30, 1971, 121-124; first election under, 125-126
Life Member eligibility, 5
Making ASPO planning policy (editorial), 61-62
Meetings, Tours: ASPO-AIP-NAHRO joint IFHP tour, 32
National Planning Conference: 1971—3, 14, 53, 64-66, 67; 1972—94, 140, 156, 166, 174
Nominating committee, 125-126
Publications: New newsletter column planned, 167; PAS reports through 1968 released for sale, 46
Research staff requests information, 14, 62, 163
Services: Planners Book Service—4, 87, 150, 183; Planning Advisory Service—mobile home study distributed, 5; new PAS reports, 30, 164-165; 19th annual survey of Expenditures, Staff, and Salaries of Planning Agencies, 94; PAS Memo series initiated, 165; Women in Planning: A Report on Their Status in Public Planning Agencies, 179-180
Staff changes, 33
Undertakes studies on: Connecticut CDAP, 85-86; dissent within planning offices, land banks, and planning by sub-units of government, 14; nongrowth, 163; service stations, 62, 139
Workshop on the planning agency and the black community, 50

CITIZEN PARTICIPATION

Advocacy planning in Stockholm, 154
Dilemma of advocacy planning, 138-139

CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS

ASPO-AIP-NAHRO joint IFHP tour, 32
National Planning Conference (ASPO): 1971—3, 14, 53, 64-66, 67; 1972—140, 156, 166, 174
State day care licensing conference, 183
U.N. conference on the human environment, 152
Workshop on planning agencies and the black community, 50

CONSTRUCTION CODES

Plastic pipes, 4

DISCRIMINATORY POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Bills prohibit exclusionary zoning, 63-64; readers write, 94
Charges filed against New Canaan, 120
Commission on cities in the 70s, 51
Court rules on municipal services, 87
"Forced integration" vs. enforcement of the law, 26-27
Old-age "commune" zoning problems, 151
Planning agencies and the black community, 50
Pressure on GT&E not to move to suburb, 50-51; readers write, 78-79
SASSO challenges zoning, 27
Supreme Court rules on Lackawanna, 86

DRIVE-IN ESTABLISHMENTS

ASPO studies service stations, 139
Service station ban (Detroit), 62

EDITORIALS

Federal reorganization, 13
Getting from here to there, 161-162
Making ASPO planning policy, 61-62
Promise little, deliver much, 113-114
Sharing revenue, 77
Some very good friends are content analysts, 133
State planning: fresh growth, 1-2
Ted Aschman, 173-174
Turf Valley versus zoning board, 149-150
Valtierra, 93-94
Will old cities build some new ones?, 45

EDUCATION IN PLANNING

Discrimination charged at Harvard, 180
Retraining aerospace engineers, 67, 167
Training for inspectors, 167
University urban affairs institutes, 86-87
Yale drops mcp, 33

ENVIRONMENT

AEC under attack, 108
An ecological plan (Redmond, Wash.,), 30
Canada Dry's commitment, 153
IRS reviews tax-exempt status of environmental organizations, 87
Pollution control, 153-154
Pollution is number one problem, 33
Protecting sand dunes, 106-107
Recycling, 166
Some very good friends are content analysts (editorial), 133
Underground waste disposal, 151
U.N. conference on the human environment, 152

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Federal reorganization (editorial), 13
Sharing revenue (editorial), 77

FINANCE AND TAXATION

Serrano v. Priest, 174-175
Sharing revenue (editorial), 77
State and local per capita tax (table), 164

HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Battle at Gettysburg, 135-136

HOUSING

"Forced integration" vs. enforcement of the law, 26-27
Housing abandonment, 105-106
HUD and regional planning agency clash

over low-cost housing, 95, 105; SEWRPC tells its side, 96, 98, 100, 102; critics view SEWRPC, 97, 99, 101, 103-104; readers write, 134
Low- and moderate-income housing (Fairfax, Va.), 136-137
Mobile homes: court decisions, 68-69; studies (bibliography), 51; court decisions of 1970, 47; 10-year trends, 5
Mortgage loan program, 34
Ohio housing and community development commission, 150
R2C—a key to lower cost housing (Kitchener, Ont.), 48-49
SASSO challenges zoning, 27
Significant court decisions of 1970, 47
Supreme Court rules on Lackawanna, 86
Trade associations tackle social problems, 127
Valtierra (editorial), 93-94
Worriers of the world, relax!, 34

HUMOR

. . . by any other name, 165
Cartoons by Julio M. San Jose: 28-29, 52-53, 116-117
Jargon control, 85
Planning to protect property, 87
Quote without comment, 46, 87
Toward more colorful zoning, 135
Worriers of the world, relax!, 34

INDUSTRY

Delaware bans industry on coast, 119-120
Painless move to suburbia, 69-70
Pressure on GT&E not to move to suburb, 50-51; readers write, 78-79
Underground waste disposal, 151

MAPS AND MAPPING

Geographic base file systems, 62
Remote sensing devices, 116

METROPOLITAN PLANNING

Atlanta agencies merge, 152-153
Centralized planning in Washington, D.C., 183
New Orleans, 15-23
New York City critique, 176-177

NEW TOWNS

Problems in Columbia, 137
Soul City, 137-138
Will old cities build some new ones? (editorial), 45

OF NOTE

6, 31-32, 54, 67-68, 82-83, 105, 119, 140, 156, 165-166, 178-179

ORGANIZATIONS

Asia Foundation, books for Asian students, 23
Council of planning and management, 67
IFHP tour, 32
National Area Development Institute, 178
National Urban Coalition: ASPO interviews Jack Vaughn, 24-25; Coalition forms commission on cities, 51
Urban and Regional Information Systems Association, 62

PERSONALS

Obituaries: 14, 107, 173-174
Russell Black fund, 6

PLANNED DEVELOPMENT

Low- and moderate-income housing in PUD regulation (Fairfax, Va.), 136-137
PUD ordinances (question and comment), 125
Turf Valley versus zoning board (editorial), 149-150

PLANNERS LIBRARY

Book reviews and books received, 7-8, 35-40, 56-57, 72-74, 88-89, 109-110, 128-130, 141-146, 157-158, 168-171, 184-187
Reports received, 8-12, 40-44, 57-60, 74-76, 89-92, 110-112, 130-132, 146-148, 159-160, 171-172, 187-190

PLANNING, GENERAL

Games (Urban Dynamics), 4
Is planning a profession?, 154-155
NEEDS: source of urban indicators, 163
People and compartments, 70-71
Plan for Barrow, 33
Planning agencies and the black community, 50
Urban Research Inventory, 183
Women in planning: table, 55; file complaint, 53; ASPO publishes Women in Planning, 179-180; Harvard charged with discrimination, 180

READERS WRITE

2, 14, 66-67, 78-79, 94, 114-115, 134-135, 162-163, 175-176

REGIONAL PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

HUD and regional planning agency clash over low-cost housing, 95, 105; SEWRPC tells its side, 96, 98, 100, 102; critics view SEWRPC, 97, 99, 101, 103-104; readers write, 134

SOCIAL PLANNING

Social planning for rural areas, 34
State day care licensing conference, 183

STATE PLANNING

ASPO studies Connecticut CDAP, 85-86
New York State planning metamorphosis, 83-85; readers write, 114
Ohio establishes housing and community development commission, 150
State planning: fresh growth (editorial), 1-2
Two alternatives for California, 115

TRANSPORTATION

Getting from here to there (editorial), 161-162
New view of urban transportation, 4-5
Pollution control, 153-154
Promise little, deliver much (editorial), 113-114
Toronto expressway stopped, 118
Traffic jams, 51, 53

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

Aerospace unemployed, 67, 167
"Forced integration" vs. enforcement of the law, 26-27
HUD and regional planning agency clash over-cost housing, 95, 105; SEWRPC tells its side, 96, 98, 100, 102; critics view SEWRPC, 97, 99, 101, 103-104; readers write, 134
Planned variations, 164

URBAN GROWTH POLICIES

ASPO nongrowth study underway, 163
Bills prohibit exclusionary zoning, 63-64
Hawaiian population stabilization commission, 154
Interview with J. K. Galbraith, 80-82
The suburban lock-out effect, 126-127
The trend toward nongrowth policies, 80; readers write, 114-115
Two alternatives for California, 115

URBAN RENEWAL

Fillmore development (San Francisco), 177-178

ZONING

Bills prohibit exclusionary zoning, 63-64; readers write, 94
Charges against New Canaan, 120
Meltzer study released, 183
Next thing you know they'll build a church, 126
SASSO challenges zoning, 27
Significant court decisions of 1970, 47
The suburban lock-out effect, 126-127
Supreme Court rules on Lackawanna, 86
Turf Valley versus zoning board (editorial), 149-150
Zoning for old-age "commune," 151